IBURI Eastern Area City introduction

The eastern area of the Iburu Region, consisting of Tomakomai, Shiraoi, Atsuma, Mukawa, and Abira, has lots of photogenic places to enjoy a glorious view. Try unique exquisite foods such as Shiraoi Beef, surf clams, and blue honeysuckle.

Tomakomai City You can experience nature in Ikor-no-mori and Lake Utonai. Irises, the city's official flower, are at their best in early July. Tomakomai is known for its surf clams. You can enjoy "surf clam curry" made with soup broth, as well as sashimi and seafood rice bowls.	Shiraoi Town The image of the National Ainu Museum is only a proposal in the design phase, and may be subject to change. The "National Ainu Museum" and the "National Park for Ethnic Harmony", symbols of ethnic coexistence will open in April 2020. The area is also famous for the well-known brand "Shiraoi Beef", and seafood such as "Kojohama Tarako (cod roe)"!	Atsuma Town Blue honeysuckle is a sweet-and-sour fruit that is good for beauty and health. Atsuma is the largest blue honeysuckle production area in Japan. From late June to late July, you can enjoy picking them and making jam.	Mukawa Town Mukawa boasts "shishamo (smelt)", the fishing of which is allowed in October and November. You can enjoy shishamo sushi and deep-fried shishamo. It is also known as the town of dinosaurs and has been conducting an excavation of dinosaur fossils.	Abira Town Abira is one of the largest horse breeding areas in Hokkaido. You can send a "Yukidaruma Yu-pack (Japan Post's parcel delivery service)", a snowman-shaped foam polystyrene package filled with snow, to countries outside Japan. You can enjoy "fields of canola flowers" from mid-May to mid-June.

IBURU Western Area City introduction

The western area of the Iburu Region, consisting of Muroran, Noboribetsu, Date, Toyoura, Sobetsu and Lake Toya, has lots of perfect places to enjoy scenery, food, and leisure! And its hot springs are ideal spots for relaxation. Here are our picks of the attractive places to visit across the four seasons!

Muroran City

Muroran boasts Hakucho Bridge, the largest suspension bridge in eastern Japan. You can enjoy a night view of factories, a new sightseeing spot, by cruise or bus tour. Try Muroran yakitori with sauce and an additively delicious curry ramen here.

Noboribetsu City

Noboribetsu is one of the main hot-spring areas in Hokkaido. It features various kinds of hot springs. You can spend a relaxing time in a natural footbath in the forest while walking on the trail to Jigokudani and Oyunuma.

Date City

Date is a region with a warm climate and is also known as "Northern Shonan". You can experience indigo dyeing and see swordsmithing at a facility next to Michi-no-Eki, and learn about Jyomon culture and history at "Kita-Kogane-Kaizuka" (historical site).

Toyoura Town

Toyoura is known for its scallop cultivation. Fresh seafood is gathered at its fishing port. The popular "World Scallop Fishing Championships" is held here every year and can be enjoyed by everyone. "JR Koboro Station" is a secluded station, which you can only reach by train.

Sobetsu Town

Sobetsu is a town with Lake Toya and volcanoes such as Mt. Usu and Mt. Showa Shinzan, in which you can enjoy a Geopark. You can feel the power of the earth from the footpath and the Mt. Showa Shinzan ropeway. Many varieties of fruit are produced here; the Sobetsu apples are particularly famous.

Toyoko Town

Lake Toya, the third largest crater lake in Japan, is famous as a hot spring town. You can enjoy various activities such as canoeing, horse-riding and cycling around here. In 2008, leaders from major countries came here to attend the Hokkaido Toyoko Summit.
